Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to declare the action of the respondents in not furnishing the statements of amounts of House Building Loan and sister's marriage loan and in not arranging the person payable from July 2000, not arranging the cash benefits in every month as illegal, unjust and in violation of principles of natural justice and consequently direct the respondents to arrange statements of amount of loan and, PF amount and also direct the 3rd respondent to arrange the pension along with arrears amount in the interest of justice and fair play.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.V.NARASIMHA GOUD

Counsel for the Respondents: MR.P.VINAYAKA SWAMY (SC FOR APSRTC)
Counsel for the Respondent No.3: MR.R.N.REDDY

The Court made the following:

THE HON'BLE MR JUSTICE B.PRAKASH RAO

WRIT PETITION NO.7319 of 2004

ORDER:

Heard both sides.

At the request of both the counsel, the main Writ Petition itself is taken up for disposal.

The learned standing counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents submits that the petitioner acquired qualifications subsequent to filing of the Writ Petition and certainly his case cannot be considered. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the representation dated 28.07.2003 to furnish the statement with the particulars, filed by the petitioner is still pending for orders. In view of the same, there cannot be any objection on the part of the respondents in considering the petitioner's case for furnishing necessary particulars from the Corporation.

The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of directing the respondents to consider the representation filed by the petitioner on 28.07.2003 and shall furnish statement of the particulars.
